THE FLATCOATED RETRIEVER SOCIETY DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY WEEKEND

This weekend is all about having FUN with your Flatcoat.
If you've ever wondered how to start off training the retrieve, agility or maybe even trying your hand at showing, this is an opportunity to find out, while your Flatcoat enjoys a wonderful party!

All Entries close on Sunday 14th May, but please send your entries in early to avoid disappointment.

Friday June 2nd Set up from 5pm.

There is no charge for tents, caravans and campervans. Please note there are no electric hook ups.

Please remember that this venue is a busy working yard, so please abide by speed restrictions and any Health and Safety notices in place.

Saturday 3rd June from 10am

Working Gundog Demonstration with Phil Bruton and Clare Gould

Puppy and Beginner Gundog Training with Phil Bruton There will be 3 sessions of 6 dogs at £6.00 per dog, arranged in groups of similar abilities and age. Book early as these will go very fast!

Placeboard Demonstration by Inger Alexanderson and the DogSolutions Display Team

Trimming Demonstration with Kelly Holland

Interactive Workshop with Jan Egginton and Jane Jones An explanation of the 'The Flatcoated Retriever, Breed Standard' as it was written by Sporting folk of the time, to encompass a moderate dog that was 'Fit for Function' so able to do a day's work on unforgiving terrain (and why this is still relevant today.)

Junior Activities The Flatcoated Retriever Society Junior Coordinator, Lauren Broome is looking forward to meeting juniors and their dogs to take them round the events and help them with some of the activities. Sessions for 6-11 years at 10am and 12-16 years at 2pm. Spaces are limited so please book early.

Flatcoated Retriever Show Match and Novelty Classes Judge: Rosemary Talbot, Heronsflight.

(Start not before 5pm) Free to enter, but entries must be received by Sunday 14th May
